IMPARTIALITY POLICY STATEMENT

KNOWLEDGE MAG CERTIFICATIONS

Knowledge Mag Certifications (KMC) is to provide certification and other relevant services in accordance with the Impartiality, Integrity, Responsibility, Competence, Objectivity, Openness, Confidentiality and Responsiveness as their main principles.

The purpose of KMC is to establish, promote, and maintain a certification process that acknowledges that customer systems, products, activities, services, or personnel comply with applicable national, international, or other standards and requirements.

KMC is committed to providing and maintaining a high quality, professional, impartial and cost-effective service that meets all relevant standards, specifications and other applicable requirements as required by accreditation bodies. KMC manages conflicts of interest and potential conflicts of interest, and ensures the independence and impartiality of those involved in the services.

Adherence to this policy and the achievement of the goal will reassure all stakeholders about the value, integrity and reliability of the certificates issued by KMC. The company's management is committed to providing all the necessary resources, to support those involved and to get involved in the efficient operation and continuous improvement of the company's management system.

KMC staff and other stakeholders are committed to understanding this policy, adhering to the principles and documented requirements, and maintaining ongoing competence. KMC is committed to promoting gender equity and avoiding all forms of discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, difference of ability, age, class, caste, or religious or ethnic affiliation in all its activities.
